

Abuse and Neglect Reporting Form

Mandatory Reporting

Everyone has a responsibility to report abuse or neglect. State law requires any person who has a reason to believe that a child or vulnerable adult has been abused or neglected to report their concerns to the Abuse and Neglect Hotline at: 800-652-1999.

In Nebraska, everyone is a mandatory reporter. This means physicians, medical institutions, nurses, school employees, social workers or any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or vulnerable adult has been subjected to abuse or neglect, or observes such child or vulnerable adult being subjected to conditions or circumstances which reasonably would result in abuse or neglect are required by law to make a report to the Abuse and Neglect Hotline and/or Law Enforcement (if an emergency exists). (Nebraska Revised Statute 28-711)

In Nebraska, failure to report child or vulnerable adult abuse/neglect is a Class III misdemeanor, which carries a maximum sentence of three months' imprisonment, a $500 fine, or both.

Definitions of Child or Vulnerable Adult Abuse and Child or Vulnerable Adult Neglect (Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services):

Physical abuse: Non-accidental physical injury (ranging from minor bruises to severe fractures or death) as a result of punching, beating, kicking, biting, shaking, throwing, stabbing, choking, hitting, burning or otherwise harming a child or vulnerable adult, that is inflicted by a parent, caregiver or other person who has responsibility for the child or vulnerable adult. Such injury is considered abuse regardless of whether the caregiver intended to hurt the child or vulnerable adult.

Physical discipline, such as spanking, is not considered abuse as long as it is reasonable and causes no bodily injury to the child or vulnerable adult. Non-accidental injury that is caused by someone other than a parent, guardian, relative or other caregiver, such as a stranger, is considered a criminal act that is not addressed by child or vulnerable adult protective services.

Neglect: The failure of a parent, guardian or other caregiver to provide for a child or vulnerable adult's basic needs. Neglect may be physical, medical, educational, or emotional.

Domestic Violence: Children or vulnerable adults are exposed to domestic violence and are harmed by the experience and suffer consequences ranging from hyper-vigilance to problem with concentration and emotional regulation.

Abandonment as Neglect: In general, a child or vulnerable adult is considered to be abandoned when the parent's identity or whereabouts are unknown, the child or vulnerable adult has been left alone in circumstances where the child or vulnerable adult suffers serious harm, or the parent has failed to maintain contact with the child or vulnerable adult or provide reasonable support.

Substance Abuse as Abuse or Neglect: Prenatal exposure of a child to harm due to the mother's use of an illegal drug or other substance; manufacture of methamphetamine in the presence of a child; and selling, distributing or giving illegal drugs or alcohol to a child.

Sexual Abuse: The employment, use, persuasion, inducement, enticement or coercion of any child or vulnerable adult to engage in, or assist any other person to engage in, any sexually explicit conduct or simulation of such conduct for the purpose of producing a visual depiction of such conduct; or the rape, and in cases of caretaker or inter-familial relationships, statutory rape, molestation, prostitution, or other form of sexual exploitation of child or vulnerable adult, or incest with child or vulnerable adult.

Emotional abuse: A behavior that harms a child or vulnerable adult's emotional development or sense of self-worth.
